

Membrane mimics lead on grade 2 listed building

SpectrarooF's Spectraplan SG120 single-ply membrane was specified for the refurbishment of the 1930s-built Park Tower in Hartlepool. A lead grey colour was chosen to visually replicate the original lead material on the mansard roof. The building is now housing.

■ Enquiry 9108